

Chairman Powell,

I recently heard the news about the fines levied against many television stations for their airing of "Married by America." I understand that the fines are the result of gratuitous sexual content. We may not be able to define "indecent," but we know it when we see it. The Sinclair Media Group is currently planning an indecent act, and you have the power, and indeed the responsibility, to prevent it from reaching the public airwaves.

I sincerely urge you to take action and stop Sinclair from airing "Stolen Honor." This "documentary" is, in fact, a partisan editorial (much like "Fahrenheit 9/11" was). It is certainly indecent to use publicly supported airwaves to attempt to influence an imminent US presidential election.

Michael Moore is attempting to put his "documentary" on Pay-Per-View; this seems acceptable to me. Please tell Sinclair to keep "Stolen Honor" off the public airwaves, and let them use Pay-Per-View as well. THAT is fair.

Thank you,
Mike Horgan
